Is a WSET Course for Me?

WSET qualifications are of value if you work front of house or wait staff in hospitality, are a bottle shop attendant, work behind a bar, or have an interest in furthering a career in the wine industry or you are a cellar door worker.

Maybe you are simply about to travel and need a qualification that is internationally recognised giving you an edge to get that position overseas or interstate.

Whatever your situation if you work in a professional capacity within the wine and spirit industries WSET training will only enhance your knowledge, understanding and working opportunities.
